

IMPACT REPORT

First Quarter 2022

Introduction

2022 is well underway, and we are filled with joy and anticipation with the direction of this year. Since moving to a co-directorship, we have been able to have clearer focus on both fundraising initiatives and expanding our reintegration services abroad. Some highlights from the first quarter:

Programs

- Graduated 7 women from our Salvadoran program
- More than doubled the number of women in our Costa Rican program
- Have identified and are creating additional resources including women's health curriculum and parenting class for mothers transitioning out of prostitution
- Welcomed 6 new women into our Mozambican program and are preparing for at least 10 graduating at the end of this year
- Incorporated new selling experiences in El Salvador that expand the women's ability for future job holdings

01

We're Working on

- Reopening FTG Uganda with repatriation assistance and cohosting an anti-trafficking conference in Kampala with the US Embassy and other key stakeholders
- Finishing up exploration into opening FTG Honduras
- Welcoming the first women into the FTG Mexico project
- Finalizing our new trauma-informed, culturally appropriate job skills courses (3 of them!)

Fundraising

- Have diversified our income avenues by accepting both cryptocurrency and stocks which has brought in an additional +$50k
- Begun our relaunch of our partnerships with Hanes and Aerie
- Expanded our church partnerships by creating additional resources for churches to engage around anti-trafficking issues
- Invited to participate in a corporate partner's launch of their pro bono rising stars program, a collaborative problem solving competition to benefit FTG

02

We're working on

- Officially launching FTG Coffee as an additional revenue stream
- Conversations with a major corporate sponsor which could open expansion into several new countries
